Jackson, MS (November 2, 2009) - Northern District Public Service Commissioner Brandon Presley (D-Nettleton) today announced permanent satellite office hours in all 33 counties of the Northern District of Mississippi beginning November 1st in an effort to reach out to consumers. Each satellite office will be open twice a month. The satellite office hours are a way for citizens to bring their concerns and complaints straight to Commissioner Presley and his staff.

"We are excited about setting up regular satellite office hours in every county of the Northern district, where people can come and talk to me or my staff members about utility issues they need help resolving," Presley said. "I believe these satellite office hours will help bring the PSC to the people."
